This latest theatre piece from Rooney and Punyi Educational Theatre Productions was commissioned for the 2011 World Marriage Day event. The performance received a standing ovation and the enthusiastic audience members were quick to share their reactions with the following feed-back comments;

- The presentation was excellent! Funny, touching, faith filled, inspiring! God at the centre of marriage was a great message. Well done. They covered so much in such a simple and effective way. – Loretta Brown
- Great acting! Good stories! Nice themes! Great advice and wisdom. Very entertaining. – Helen & Andre Beauregard.
- A unique true and authentic portrayal of the real world of marriage. Loved the concept! Blessings for your work and talent. May you continue to inspire. – Tina Schoenfelder
- An excellent, entertaining and insightful dramatic humorous look at Christian marriage. – Graham and Maria Hicks
- The show is very powerful. That's really the reality in our marriage life. Well done! - Manny and Cong-Cong Cerin.
- Wonderful depiction of the grace of being in love with each other through Christ. And of the distraction of marriage and how Christ can return us to live in our Sacrament and experience each other's goodness through him. Loved it! Loved it! – Maureen and Al Pancheud.
- The show was really awesome! The actors were funny, the situations very relevant. I really appreciate the experience. As the actors were doing their thing, I was transported to whatever they were presenting. I am so glad I came today. I really needed this. Perhaps you can bring this to (our church). Thank-you for the experience. - B. Reyes
- It was a truly moving and inspiring performance. We feel blessed and privileged to have seen it. Thank-you and may God bless you. – Nishks and Isaac Oakley
